How does the scam work?

The scammer would usually start with an introduction of themselves. Depending on their tactics, they could appear as employers looking for hires, someone from a dating website, or someone who supposedly texted the wrong number.

Once you respond, the scammers will try to build a relationship with you. They will initiate a conversation with you, talk about everyday things, and maybe send you photos of 'themselves.' Ultimately, their main goal is to get money from you.

ignore it. It is also possible that responding could put you on a list for more spam calls and messages.

- Block numbers that send you suspicious messages, especially if they have links.
- Never give personal and financial information to unknown numbers.
